OF <<NAME>>

We hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation to form a nonstock, nonprofit corporation and to that end set forth the following.

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of the Corporation is: <<NAME>>

ARTICLE II PURPOSES AND POWERS

Purposes: This corporation is organized as a non-profit educational organization within the meaning and provisions of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code OF 1954:

The Organization will inform and educate students, faculty and staff of all institutes of higher education concerning the impact on the individual, family, community, state, and nation of public policies regarding the unborn but also to include pregnancy, parenting and euthanasia, as well as raise awareness about the resources available to college students. It will assist in the education and development of dedicated, knowledgeable, and morally responsible leaders in <<STATE>>. It will assist in the promotion of a culture of life in society, focusing primarily on but not limiting scope to institutions of higher education;

The Organization will accomplish this mission by fostering the establishment, development, and growth of pro-life student groups at institutions of higher educations in the state of <<STATE>>. It will provide a forum for <<STATE>> students and student groups to exchange methods, materials, and means of promoting pro-life ideals on campus, in the state, and in the nation. The Organization will write, prepare, compile, and distribute educational materials to interested individuals and organizations through various means of communication, including but not limited to reports, studies, monographs, books, letters, newspapers, lectures, addresses, radio, and television media. It will also sponsor and support public discussion groups, panels, forums, conferences, lectures, seminars, debates, programs, and other similar events to which interested individuals, organizations, and members of the public will be invited. It will also work with other organizations and individuals in order to achieve the above stated purposes. By all other means allowed by law governing non-profit corporations.

Powers: In addition to the foregoing objects and purposes, the Corporation is empowered to do all and everything necessary, suitable, and proper for the accomplishment, attainment, or furtherance of its purposes subject to the limitations that:

The Corporation is a nonprofit corporation organized without capital stock. The organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its Directors, Officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Section (A) of this Article;

No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office or on behalf of or in opposition to any ballot proposal; and

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
