

WEEK THIRTY

THE ABORTION BREAKS TINY HEARTS CAMPAIGN

Blink

By now, the baby can open and close his eyelids, and his eyes have developed enough so that he can sense light through his mother's womb. His vision will be about 20/400 at the time of birth and keep sharpening in the weeks after. His weight is up to around three pounds and for the next month, as he fills out and adds layers of fat, he'll gain half a pound per week.
