

22 Weeks Talking Points

- What things did Angela's friend do to help? What things did Angela's friend do that were not helpful? What more could have Angela's friend done?
- Do you think most women would have reacted in the same way as Angela after she begins delivering her baby?
- When one Christian tries to convince her to save the baby, Angela replies, "God was never raped." How can we minister to those who were raped?
- What are the best arguments to use when someone says rape is a reason to abort?
- It seems that Angela's parents are not involved whatsoever. Why are parental consent laws necessary and how are they sometimes not enforced through loopholes?
